

ASHBOURNE SHOW

CRAFT MARQUEE PRICE & INFORMATION

(Not for hot food, ice-cream or public bar concessions)

Ashbourne Show is a traditional country and agricultural show over 130 years old based 2 miles south of Ashbourne, Derbyshire, in the village of Osmaston (DE6 1LU), with an average footfall in excess of 12,000 made up of all ages, backgrounds and pockets. We consistently have over 100 trade stands each year selling a wide range of products from clothing to tractors, jewellery to bespoke furniture. There are also craft and food hall marquees selling homemade and hand produced items and an additional indoor retail marquee which is around another 75 stalls.

There is a full main ring programme and attractions around the showground to entertain our visitors all day. We are proud of our agricultural links with strong classes of heavy horses, cattle, sheep, goats, light horses and poultry showcasing some of the best animals in the area.

Bookings for stands are made online by clicking the appropriate link on our website. Please make sure you have read and can comply with all our terms and conditions below. We do not accept any bookings without full payment, completed vehicle access form, up to date risk assessment and proof of public liability insurance to a minimum of £5m.
